

NOTICE TO MARINERS

No. 04 - 2017

PORT OF GREAT YARMOUTH

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that double banking of berthed vessels is not permitted in the River Port.

As per the Great Yarmouth Port Authority Navigation (Haven) Byelaws 1997:

Restrictions on Mooring

34. (1) Unless otherwise required by the Vessel Traffic Service, all vessels shall moor broadside to the berth.

(2) With the exception of Berth 21h (Town Hall Quay), at which up to two vessels may moor alongside one another, no vessel shall moor alongside another vessel in the Haven without the permission of the Vessel Traffic Service.

(3) No vessel shall berth or moor within 30 metres of the Haven Bridge without the permission of the Vessel Traffic Service.

Mariners are reminded that vessels are not allowed to double bank in the river unless special permission has been granted by the Harbour Master.

If any vessel is currently moored alongside another vessel, please contact Yarmouth Radio to make the necessary arrangements to move to another berth. For further information please contact Yarmouth Radio (VHF Ch12 or 01493 335511) or the Harbour Office at GYHarbourOffice@Peelports.com
